“ Aunt Carol was always a hard person to get things by and try to get away with it. You never could. I wasn't really around the family a lot but when I was it was always a great time. I love this family even though I don't see a lot of you but I still think a lot of you and hopefully we can all get together in memory of Aunt Caro) someday. Love you all and love you the most Aunt Carol. Rest in peace forever

“ I am so deeply saddened by this loss. This was my Cazden's other Nana with all the animals. From the first time I went to their home till the birthday party she shared with us for Cazden she has always been so kind and wonderful. Always so thoughtful for my little guy especially. If there is any comfort it is knowing she is at peace and free of pain, may she watch over all of us and keep us safe.

“ I remember the first time I met her like it was yesterday. It was the first time she saw the kid that was going out with her daughter, she told me I better not be a bleep to her. Told me if I ever was she was gonna shoot me with her crossbow. I lost my mom when I was 23, and you have been there every since. I am honored and privileged to have had another woman I called mom for the past 19 years. I love you with everything and you will always be a mother to me. I know you are gonna be watching me and gonna let me know when I mess up.

“ Gonna miss ya mom, you are such a terrific lady. God has another beautiful angel. Please keep your arms around us, and watch over us, as you have always done. Rest In Peace. All my love

“ What a beautiful woman inside and out - I met her through her daughter and all you need to know about a person is by how their children are raised. She raised a strong kind woman that puts others before herself and is always there for anyone in need - a beautiful legacy for such a wonderful woman. It breaks my heart of her passing but also comforts me to know there is another angel watching over all in need - she will be a great guardian you will be deeply missed Mum
