“ We were sad to hear of Dave's passing. He and Mary Jane made us feel so welcomed when we moved to this wonderful community more than 25 years ago. We watched our first Dogwood Parade from the front porch of the their home.

You could not be around Dave for long before realizing he had a quick mind and an often mischievous wit.

You also soon realized how much he loved Phoenixville. Working to make it a better place was a labor of love for him.

He is missed. Our condolences to his family.

“ Dearest David, Robb and each member of the Frees family: So many things we learn from your Dad/Grandpa. His deep commitment to family; community; hard work. And especially, his sense of humor. The last time we spoke, he told me a joke. Despite everything he was going through he once again reminded me of the importance of good cheer. When life gives you lemons, laugh and drink lemonade. With friends. Stay healthy, dear Frees friends. The community needs you more than ever these days. For good. Forever.

“ I have known Dave since I was in High School; we taught Sunday school together, took part in Historical Society events, hiked and cleared brush on Tortola (yes some rum was involved). and enjoyed life. We discussed politics and was a guiding force for me in developing my political vision and love for the community. He will be missed by many and his effects on lives will be enjoyed by many more including those that never had the pleasure of knowing him. Rest in peace Dave.

“ To David M Frees, Jr: David, I thought I was going to say that I would miss that mischievous smirk of yours. But in reality, it is seared into my mind for retrieval every time I think of you. Each time it makes me smile in return a little bit, and that is something that you have given me to carry all the rest of my days. God bless and God speed, my friend. And to the entire clan of Frees friends and family, my deepest condolences for your loss. And, at the same time, my deepest gratitude for sharing with me a man with such wit, character and caring. Not to mention that smirk I mentioned above that always left me wondering if he was up to something he shouldn't be. I would guess he usually was.
