“ What an incredible man, husband, father, and grandfather (I am sure!!). So very sorry for your loss, Treasure the memories he has left behind. MrP truly lived his life to the fullest. Blessed to know a man who always had his priorities in the right place. The marriage of MrP andMrsP was an inspiration for me to see growing up. I will always remember the Christmas Eve parties and family times. I represent my mom by saying, Don (and Carolyn) were two of her favorite people. Again my condolences to the entire family.

“ I'm going to miss my good neighbor and golf buddy. We had many cigars and good conversation on the golf course as well as those on his deck in Valley Forge. Good friends are tough to find and tougher to lose.

“ I met Don when he joined PCC. Although he was one of the older players, he was one of the most youthful. He enjoyed every day on the course.He was filled with a zest for life and the ability to make every encounter joyful. We will all miss him.
