“ Renee, Rachel, Matt & families, It is especially hard during times like these to be so far away in Oregon. Barry would always ask me if I have seen “Big Foot”? It was an ongoing joke. When he was spending so much of his time in Delaware, he would tell me he needed me to come cook & clean. Anyone that knew Barry, shared in his gift of jokes and laughter. Being in the presence of Barry I would laugh until I cried, and leave with warmth in my heart. One of the most memorable moments in my life was the weekend I spent in Delaware at their place, what a great time it was. Barry was one of the most wonderful people I was blessed to have in my life. He was an amazing person, Kind, giving, funny, & full of love for his wife, children & grandchildren. Barry lives on in our hearts. He is gone too soon but free from pain and in God’s arms.

“ My late husband, Dusty Kistler, liked Barry a lot. They were VFW buddies. I am so sorry this happened to him at such a young age. Know that the pain will lessen eventually. But probably right now that doesn't seem possible.
