

Gregory V. Casmay

August 22, 1960 - April 13, 2021

Gregory V. Casmay, age 60, of Bristol, Pennsylvania, passed away on Tuesday, April 13, 2021 in Einstein Medical Center Montgomery. Born on August 22, 1960 in Phoenixville, he was a son of June (Koloch) Casmay, of Birdsboro and the late George "Butch" Casmay.

A Class of 1978 graduate of Spring-Ford High School, Greg was very intelligent and a profound writer and speaker. He always had a way with words. Owner of Casmay Renovations, Greg was a roofer by trade, but Greg could do anything. Greg was a master craftsman and loved teaching the trade to his sons. He enjoyed time spent outside and building things. Greg was also very creative and artistic and it was important to him that these talents and special interests were introduced, taught and passed down to his children and grandchildren, who are very proud to follow in his footsteps. Greg was a true man of his word and was always willing to lend his hand to help anyone, in any way that he could.

Greg had a special and unique relationship with each of his children. No matter what, he always had a presence in his children's lives and never missed anything. He loved FaceTimeing with his daughters to talk about food and snacks, being silly, telling jokes or just to talk. His grandchildren were his pride and joy and Greg always went above and beyond to make every moment with his grandkids feel special to them. These memories will always be cherished.

In addition to his mother, Greg is survived by his wife and friend: Pamela S. (Stewart) Casmay; step-children: Laura Fries of Stowe and Joshua, husband of Nicole Peppel, of Shillington; children: Gregory S. Casmay, of Bristol, Katelin, wife of Declan Tracy, of Reading, Jacob Casmay, of Warminster, Jessica Casmay, of Schwenksville and Sarah Casmay, of Schwenksville; siblings: Douglas Casmay, of Audubon and Dawn Obniski, of Birdsboro; and grandchildren: Isabelle, Silas, Brendan, Zachary, Colton, Raegan, Lily and Riley. He was preceded in death by a brother, George "Butch" Casmay.
