“ Jim was a great neighbor and friend. He was always there to assist and lend a hand. Whether it was cutting up a tree that had fallen over a driveway or helping to clear snow from a heavy storm, Jim was someone you could count on. he will be missed.

“ Peggy:

So many times at the yearly Navy reunions after we reunited with the Leary group where we first met you and Jim, and realized we lived less than twenty miles from each other, we would say that we had to get together for dinner. It took a long time but when we finally did we were pleased to find that we enjoyed your company and would linger for hours visiting and talking in the restaurant at Macoby Run golf course. We became monthly regulars and shared many family stories both good and bad over years of good food and friendship. I was always in awe of how much Jim could eat! We already miss that fellowship but will hold dear the memories of those wonderful encounters.

I pray that our loving God will continue to comfort your family as you grieve the loss of Jim.

“ Dear Peggy and Family,

Please accept my sincerest condolences regarding the loss of Jim. He will certainly be missed by everyone whose life he touched. I know I've missed having him sit on the back pew before the service and we'd chat for a while about many things happening in our lives. That seat on the back pew will now be filled with the many memories of Jim. He was truly a "gentleman".

Keeping all of you in my thoughts and prayers.

Sincerely,

Sue Graham
