“ Another year without you, now five. So much is happening in our lives I hope you are looking down on and giving us all of your love. Things seem so much harder without you here. The one thing I miss the most is just sitting at the dinning room table talking and drinking coffee what I would do to just be able to do that one more time:( Cameron knows more and more about you as he is getting older always keeping you in our conversations. See you in the stars dad, miss you everyday keep looking after us.

“ Another year goes by without you here....the pain is still so strong I find myself crying more and more as time goes by. There is so much that you are missing and I will never get it back. I wish I could just hear your voice again your laugh, there is a big void in my life that I don't think will ever be filled. I talk to Cameron about you all the time I want him to know who you are , what you liked and how funny you were. Please keep watching over us:( I will see you in the stars we love you so much dad make the pain go away! :(
