“ Last Tuesday, was our Judy's birthday. I just came across Bette Midler, singing, "Your the wind beneath my wings." Anytime you hear THAT song, to ME, it fits our Judy to a "T!" Anytime I was near her, I tried to convey that thought. Whether she believed it or not. It not matter. For I know. And I hope people that knew her, knew that. For I believe, she always put others first. Herself last. So as in Scripture, the first shall be last. And the last first. Art Mauger.

“ What another beautiful tribute of a Happy birthday flag to our Judy. She loved all animals. I know they gave her equal love and affection. Many thanks, to whomever graced her final resting place with any and all tributes, to this wonderful lady.

“ Tomorrow July 13th, is our Judy's Birthday. On April 17, 2019 Christ has given her an Eternal birthday gift. Judy gave us unconditional love, joy, many happy memories. If possible, if you know of a friend that has an upcoming birthday, send a card. But even better, give them a hug. Please do in Loving Memory of our Judy. Thanks, Art Mauger.

“ Tomorrow is Mother's Day. If you enjoy a Cheesteak with sauce, Vanilla milk shake, Necco wafers,(but not the licorice ones), see a yellow car or truck, (that she called a "tweety", as in Tweety bird), give your kids a hug. Then think of our Judy. At different times, she may have to go to the Hospital, and she unable to be in Church, right after some kids would go visit her. She was loved by a LOT of people. MORE than she realized. Art Mauger

“ Two years ago today, God took our Judy home to Heaven. Two or Twenty-two years we will still miss our Judy. But a lot of us, have MANY good memories. In sewing, she would read a dress pattern, memorize it, put it way, and make the dress. Going clothes shopping, she could tell if the item was cheaply made or not. For all eternity, she's wearing a White Righteous Robe. 04-17-2019, was Judy's Ascension Day. God bless all who knew and loved her. Art Mauger

“ Today is Palm Sunday. In 2019, Judy's passing was a couple of days before Easter. One Easter she was given a pair of "Bunny" slippers. Her Boston, "Happy" thought they REAL! She kept barking, over & over. Finally Judy had to put them away, for another time. Each Easter at her Church, when the statement made, 'HE IS RISEN', Her voice was always loud and strong! May God continue to comfort ALL who knew her.

“ It not seem possible it's been over a year Our Judy went to Heaven, to be with all her family and Friends. As I'm sure with others, there's a hole in our hearts. Till we meet again, "Kitten". Art Mauger

“ I was reminded of Judy volunteering American Red Cross Blood Program over 2000 hrs., with the late Kitty Kopp. Such a "Beautiful" Video tribute to a fine Christian lady and friend.

“ I was so very blessed to have met Judy. Chloe, my Boston Terrier, and I visited Judy while she was in hospice. Even though I only knew her for a short time, it was obvious that she was a very special lady. Rest In Peace, Judy. You will forever be in my heart.

“ Thank you Susanne for sharing your blessed thoughts. My long time friend in & out of school, OJR, some people may not how many ways she served Christ. 45 yrs. as a Lay Pastor, 40 yrs Flower/visitation chairperson, 35 yrs. as Sunday School secretary, also member Bd. of Ch. Ed., 25 yrs as Blood Chairperson, herself giving 15 Gallons of Blood. She had a Universal type, anyone could use. And she always was one of the first to volunteer to help in any way she could. Also financially. At Phoenixville Hospital she gave over 10,000 hrs. of service. She said after her near fatal car accident, Coma 2 months, plus other medical issues, she promised Christ she would serve him anyway she could. She was a "Walking miracle." I was very proud she let me serve beside her almost every step of her life.

“ Gail and family,

I am so sorry for your loss. Judy, a/k/a Aunt Judy to me, Kim, Rosie and all of our other critters that she loved too quickly became an important part of our family. I feel very blessed to have been her friend and I am already missing her greatly. Aunt Judy expressed her feelings many times of not being good enough for anyone or anything. This lady who would have done anything she could to help someone out always thought of herself as being a burden to others and she couldn't stand that. In our many times of going out to dinner or shows she would always say that she was "ugly". Now what mirror was she looking in to? I would ask her. I would always tell her that all I saw was a beautiful, loving, strong woman. Oh how she would put herself down. To these expressed feelings, I remain hopeful that Judy knew how very serious I was when telling her that she was not just good enough, but that she was absolutely "great enough" and that she could never be a burden to anyone.

I would encourage her by making it obvious that she was beautiful both inside and out. Perhaps that most encouragement and reinforcement to Aunt Judy on these facts came from her closest "baby girl" Rosie. Delight beamed from little four legged Rosie every time Aunt Judy visited our house and especially when Rosie realized that she was going to visit Aunt Judy at Parkhouse. All I had to say is do you want to go see Aunt Judy, well she'd dance all around the floor. She knew she was going to visit her very "special" person. If there is ever a genuine truth to be told about someone's character, it is that told from an animal's reaction to that person.

Aunt Judy's huge heart and kind, loving nature shined through as she shared stories about her beloved Bostons, her childhood cats including Big Red, her neighbors dog from the Bard Complex (that he was lucky enough to have her sit for him) and of course any other critters that happened on Judy's path. The many critters in Aunt Judy's life loved her unconditionally as she did them. The above only just brushes the mere surface of this wonderful lady.

She enjoyed telling of her past employment experiences and related good work ethic by sharing info regarding her jobs. One of those jobs was at National Foam. She enjoyed working there very much and the relationships she built over the years to be the best job experiences ever. She was also very proud of her many years of volunteering at the Phoenixville Hospital at the front desk. She definitely was a people person.

Aunt Judy's perseverance despite all of the hardship she encountered was truly an inspiration for All. It is of no surprise that as her physical body began to fail her, her perseverance remained strong to the point that she no longer wished to be restrained by such. It is of no doubt that at this time Aunt Judy is now free of the physical body restriction and doesn't "have to imagine what it will be like when that day comes" because she is now enjoying pain free peace with all of those who passed on before her.

I love you Aunt Judy and til we meet again, HUGS, HUGS, and more HUGS.

Love Sue

“ Jesus Christ was her Lord & Savior, as well as mine. Judy was a long time friend. Her smile would light up any room she was in.
