“ Nora was my cousin and a lively one at that. She was a force of nature and always good company. She loved my mother and visited often. I will always remember her fondly.

“ I first met Nora in 1974 through my very close friend, her sister, Patsy. We vacationed with her parents Roger & Mary White in the Virgin Islands where her parents resided. That was my first introduction to “The White Family”. Diane was there as well as Roger her brother. Each family member was “unique” in their own way. It never ceased to amaze me that Roger could wear a suit in the tropics and not sweat and Diane would venture out without sunblock and snorkel the entire day only to return home looking like she was fried. But Nora was special....easy to get along with, always a smile, so witty and funny and not to mention how creative she was as well as a great cook. Nora had it all! Also, she was very pretty and had great curly hair that she wanted to be straight.

Over the years we always got together when she visited her sister. She was just great to be with and could lift your spirits in the matter of minutes. I know she loved her sons very much and was very proud of them. Nora loved everybody and everybody loved Nora.

Over the years we would meet at weddings and sad to say, funerals. Nora was a special person who will be sadly missed by all. I know she is heaven and was greeted by my dear friend, her sister, with open arms. Heaven will never be the same! Rest In Peace my friend. Eileen Stevens-Lecker.

“ I first met Nora 8 years ago when I came to the addictions program, Reformers Unanimous where her husband Mitch was the assistant director. That night in July 2012-and after a lifetime of trying to find help- they both shared with me the only One who could really change me, Jesus Christ. Because of her faithfulness and commitment to God Nora was a huge part of my personal transformation which began that day. I am ever so grateful for the 8 years of close friendship I shared with both her and Mitch. They were my “spiritual parents”. My life is so rich because of them and I look forward in joyful anticipation to seeing their faces again!
