

Shane Joseph Boudler

September 26, 2002 - April 24, 2021

Shane J. Boudler, age 18, of Media, PA, formerly Phoenixville, PA, passed away on Saturday, April 24, 2021. Born on September 26, 2002 in Phoenixville, PA, he was a son of Elizabeth K. McGowan of Drexel Hill, PA and Kenneth E. Boudler Jr., husband of Sarah Boudler of Media, PA.

Shane was set to graduate from the Penncrest High School in two short months, where he was enrolled in several honors and AP classes, was highly academically focused, and was a passionate and accomplished wrestler. He recently was accepted to Penn State at the University Park, where he planned to major in marketing and business administration, and had formerly dreamed of becoming a medical transcriber.

Shane spent much of his time helping and volunteering within the community. This included attending Wednesday evening and Sunday church events at the Blue Route Vineyard Church in Media, where often times he helped with childcare. Until very recently, Shane also was helping a neighbor reconstruct a deck, and task he was instrumental in helping complete.

With a friendly and a socially engaging personality, Shane had a flirtatious charm to him from a very young age. He was the best big brother, who assisted his father in the role of caring for his siblings. In between the many jokes he would play on them, he always uplifted and pushed for them to be the best they could be. Shane also enjoyed traveling to the Jersey Shore with his buddies, which typically included trips to Wildwood or to Ocean City.

In addition to his parents, Shane is survived by three siblings, Josh Boudler, Ashley Boudler, and Maureen Boudler; one step-brother, Colby Cover; his maternal grandmother, Marie McGowan; his paternal grandparents, Kenneth E. Boudler Sr. and Goldie Boudler; three Uncles, Jack, Francis, and Charles McGowan; great-Uncle Charles Costello, great-Aunt Mary Raab, great-Aunt Rita Ream, great-Uncle Ron Boudler, and great-Uncle Dan Boudler.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend a viewing for Shane on Monday, May 3, 2021 from 5:00 pm - 7:00 pm at the Campbell-Ennis-Klotzbach Funeral Home, Inc., Main Street at Fifth Avenue, Phoenixville, PA. Funeral and burial services will be held privately. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made in his name to the Blue Route Vineyard Church, 425 W. Front Street, Media, PA 19063. Condolences may be made by visiting <http://www.PhoenixvilleFuneralHome.com>. Arrangements are being handled by the Campbell - Ennis - Klotzbach Funeral Home, Inc., Phoenixville, Pennsylvania.

“ News of your son Shane’s passing has shocked our family. He was a good and nice young boy. We enjoyed having him when he was a little boy at our house years ago. The McGinnis Family extends our deepest sympathies to you during this time. We were heartbroken for Shane’s passing. Our heart aches for you and your family. No amount of words can express the pain that you are going through...Our heart goes out to you and your family. Please accept our most heartfelt condolences for your loss of Shane. May Shane Rest in Peace. Shane is with the Lord in heaven. FLY HIGH! With Deepest Sympathy, Joe, Beth, Patrick, Sean, Brendan and Katie McGinnis

“ The Wallence family is sending prayers and thoughts. We are deeply saddened by the loss of Shane. We remember him as a friend and teammate of our son Matthew. Matt will always remember Shane's humor and willingness to push himself as a wrestler. They actually wrestled each other last year when Phoenixville went up against Penncrest. They hugged it out when the match was over and remained steadfast teammates, although wrestling for different schools. We pray that all family and friends will remember the light in Shane's heart and will keep it glowing within their own throughout the days and years to come. With Deepest Sympathy. Todd, Lorijeane, Michael, Matthew, and Zachary Wallence

“ Shane was part of our daily life, in a very very good way! I remember Isaac coming home from school his Sophomore year, excited to tell us "a new kid moved in across the street and he goes to Penncrest." We have had many laughs with Shane and about Shane. His ongoing energy, his stories that were never done telling and of course, his faithful friendship to our Isaac. It will be hard to grasp your new life without Shane and we pray you find strength in knowing he will live on forever in your hearts.

“ My heart is deeply saddened by the loss of Shane. He offered so much to our statistics class this school year with his frequent participation (even in Zoom). In quieter times, I find myself thinking of how great this loss is to your family and to our world. Shane was full of spirit and amazing charisma. I was lucky enough to teach Shane’s brother Josh in Algebra class when he was a freshman at Penncrest and I learned a tremendous amount by having a sign language interpreter in my classroom for the first time in 20 years of teaching. When I met Shane, I was inspired at his unique ability to communicate fluently with both worlds and I frequently would tell him how much I admired his unique skill set. To Josh and your family, I am so incredibly sorry for your loss.

“ Dave Saville and I have fond memories of Shane as a wrestler. He always worked hard and put forth a lot of effort in the practice room and during his matches. Win or lose he could hold his head high because we knew he gave his best. Even in matches where he lost, there is no memory of quitting or lack of fight in him. In fact, it was the opposite. Shane was a quiet leader in the way he carried himself whether he knew it or not. Yes, he was a typical middle school aged kid who could be goofy at times but he was always respectful and was a good listener eager to learn more about the sport as I remember drilling with him. Dave and I were blessed to have coached Shane. Praying with all my love - Ben Spinelli (PAMS Art/PAMS Asst. Wrestling Coach)

“ Shane was a polite person. My last encounter was Shane knocking on my door to ask if he can 'search' my backyard for his drone that his father got him. Apparently he tried to fly the drone on a good windy day and was not able to get the drone to do what he wanted to do, so it ended in some branches of trees in my yard. Shane was sharing how concerned he was to getting this drone and not to ever fly it again so he does not disappoint his father. I rest Shane's concern to say it is all a learning experience and he would no fly the drone on windy days and to go to a more open area to have fun with it.

I am not sure what was the end of all of the drone exploring, but that was my last encountered with Shane ( last year). I hope he was able to explore more with the drone.

God bless to the Boudier family for raising a very well polite person. My he rest in peace there in heaven. He will be watching over us. Rest in peach Shane <3

“ Elizabeth,
Words seem meaningless at times like this, please know that you and your children are in our prayers during this most difficult time. Shane's loss will be felt by everyone and as his loving mother you must be feeling a tremendous loss. There will be a part of your son that will continue to bring joyful memories to you and those who knew him. Jill and I will hold Shane in our prayers. Again, we offer our deepest condolences to you and your children.

“ Shane was one of those people who could remind me, daily, of why I am a teacher. From the minute I met him, when he walked in to my 10th grade English class, I could tell that the guy was special. Intelligent, hungry for knowledge, empathetic, humble, and just straight-up nice. Even his emails were drenched in positivity and professionalism. Shane made the people around him better. He did it through genuine concern for others and through his inquisitive nature. Comments that he made and questions that he asked often made it into the lesson, when I taught the same idea to another class, even years later. I am a better teacher because I had the honor of teaching Shane, and I'm a better person for having known him. Much love and respect, my friend.
