“ David has been my dear friend for almost 20 years. We met while I was caring for his mother at Manatawny Manor. We soon developed a friendship that has been a joy, I think for both of us. He was a man of great dignity, but with a wonderful dry sense of humor. Our monthly lunches and weekly calls have blessed my life and I will miss him, but I feel so fortunate to have known him.

“ To David's family and to his dear friends I extend my heartfelt condolences with his sudden passing. We will miss David's most gentle and patient way, his calm, eloquent and distinctive speech, his listening ear and his often quiet presence. May his time with us be remembered with the same good spirit he so often sent out to us while he was among us. Susan Slaymaker Boyer New York

“ It was with shock and sadness that I learned of David's death. I spoke with him on Wednesday evening, before his death, never expecting that we would never speak again. David was a good friend. He was a talented and excellent musician. David will be missed by all who knew him. Jack R. Beaver

“ To the Family, We are always saddened by the passing of our dear loved one. The time we have with them is never enough. Please keep in your hearts and minds the wonderful joy and happiness they brought to your lives. Even though it is hard for us to imagine the void in our lives be assured of this period as resting time for them. Hope is given to us through the scriptures that this enemy called "Death" will soon be done away with. (1 Cor. 15:26) Not only will death be no more, neither will sickness, pain and sorrow be anymore. (Rev. 21:3-4) God has said "He is making all things new". My prayers are with you all.
