“ Kim, You are in our thoughts and prayers. Sorry that we found out too late about you father's services, but please know that we care and hope you and your family can find peace. Your Dad will be that angel on your shoulder. May your memories of your Dad, one day, only bring a smile and not a tear. God Bless.

“ To Don Ferreri and Family: Words can not express the sympathy I feel for you at this time. Just some words of encourage ment to let you know you are in our prayers and if you need anything I am just a phone call away. “.... for I will turn their mourning into joy, and will comfort them, and make them rejoice from their sorrow.” Jeremiah 31:13 Be strong for each other as I pray that the Almighty bottles up every tear and take you through this trying time as he has done so many times before. Weeping may endure for a night but joy comes in the morning. Be encouraged and God will strengthen your heart.

“ Toni, Kim, Traci, Donna, Don and family, I am so sorry and very sad. Paul is one of the best and will always be my second dad. You are all so important to me and I am here for you. I find comfort knowing that Paul and Anthony are together and have each other. I now have two angels to turn to, and I often do. I love you all very much

“ Too many good times to mention all of them. Taught me more about the game of baseball than all my other coaches and managers combined...the person responsible for changing me from a kid who loved baseball into a baseball player... Let alone the life lessons on how to be a man and a father. Remember that which he gave us more than the feelings of loss we have been left with... Rest in Peace, good friend.
