“ Dear Ronnie, Julie and Family, Even way down here in South Carolina, Aunt Ada will be missed. I am so glad that I came to see her with Mom while I was up for a visit. Although it was la longtime ago I have often thought about her and remembered how much I loved her. I remember coming over to your house on 5th Avenue and her precious smile. She had a very soft and loving way about her. I really don't think I ever heard her raise her voice...The angels are rejoicing as she walks through heavens pearly gates....May you find peace in knowing that she is rejoicing as well with the King of King and Lord of Lords....We love you....Darlene
