“ Dear Hap, Donna, Julie, Nic, John, Dan, Kateri, and everyone else who has been devastated by this loss, there really is nothing that can be said, no words that can be offered to ease your pain and suffering, but you are all in my prayers every day and night. Please take what comfort you can in the knowledge that she only ever new happiness. Adriana never had to learn about the bad in this world, the pain, or the suffering, she only felt the love and adoration of those around her. Her passing was painless, and her life was about love and joy in the smile of those she loved. It must be that god never intended for her to feel anything that was not positive, and so he took her before she would have to. You will see her again as the untouched, untarnished, and unweathered soul that she is. All beauty and delight! My heart is with you all.
