“ Adriane had been a true mentor and friend of mine over the years. There was so much 'good' about her. At a previous company where she was my manager, because of looming job cuts, she voluntarily left the company to save the jobs of mine and two other co-workers. She, without a doubt, shaped me into the person and worker I am today.

Adriane, you will be missed by all of us. I think of Doug and family and pray that you find peace in knowing that your wife, daughter and sister is with a higher power now and will take care of you all.

Much love.

“ I am sitting here in utter shock and profound sadness about Adriane's death, and feeling deep regret at how little I stayed in touch with her in recent years.

Adriane made a big and indelible impact on my life. She was a wonderful teacher to me at the very beginning of my career. She was a "big sister" who helped me navigate adulthood. She was also my confidante as I initiated a relationship that would eventually culminate in marriage.

Adriane was beautiful inside and out. She had an unparalleled depth of talent, intelligence and creativity. She was meticulous with her work yet quick to share a loud and hearty laugh. I always admired her personal style and panache--ever-polished nails, impeccable hair, high heels. :)

I didn't even know Adriane was sick, and I am regretting that I didn't tell her everything above while she was still here to hear it. I'm counting on the fact that she's "listening" now.

Much love, respect and appreciation to you, Adriane, and my deepest heartfelt sympathy to Doug and her dad and brother. I can't even imagine how much you are all missing her. :(
