“ Hi to everyone,
Sorry to hear about your mom and Ed's & my prayers are with you.
If anything we can do on this end, please let me know. I remember Agnes as she was. She was a very good person. Again we are praying for her soul.

“ Oh, Agnes was my friend. Last week when I was on the unit Agnes was having a really good day and we spent some time together. If I didn't see Agnes for awhile all I had to do when I approached her was remind her that I was "Jill with the funny eyes" and Agnes would just laugh and laugh - I loved that! I can see her right now in my mind's eye. Agnes will be missed.

“ I just learned of Mrs Crawford's passing. I have many fond memories of both mr & mrs Crawford and the Hancocks "Sunwood Farm" They were good friends and fellow Valley Forge natives to me and my parents, Ellen & Jack Plunkett. I still have a copy of the poem Olen wrought about Valley Forge in my dads Bible. I know Agnes was a women of great faith and is with the Lord Fondly, Sue Ellen
