“ Aunt Miriam, Linda, Connie, Randy, and Dean, I will forever remember Uncle Alan as a kind and generous man, who always had a smile and a warm welcome for us whenever we visited. I was deeply saddened to hear of his passing, and feel honored to be able to call such a good and humble man “Uncle.” As you go through this great sorrow, may your faith in God sustain you and bring you comfort for today, courage for tomorrow, and hope in your heart always. You are each in my thoughts and prayers. “Blessed is the man who brings honor to the word ‘father,’ who is a credit to the word ‘brotherhood,’ who is a quiet man of whom his children often say, “We’re glad he’s our father,” of whom his wife often says, “I’m glad he’s my husband,” of whom his parents say “We’re glad he’s our son.” William Arthur Ward.

“ Dear Miriam: I just heard about your loss on Monday, my first day back to work. I'm very sorry to learn of the sad news. I didn't know your husband, but after watching the video, which brought tears to my eyes, it made me realize that there are marriages that are everlasting like yours was. My thoughts are with you and your family.

“ Dear Miriam, Your dear brother, Ken, connected me with Alan's Obituary. I'm looking forward to meeting you. So sorry I did not get to meet Alan before he passed on to be with God. I loved how you shared such beautiful and touching moments between you and Alan through pictures. What a beautiful and impressive family God gave the two of you. Wonderful blessings the two of you have shared in your many years together. The pain must seem unbearable at times but you know, so well, how great is our God. May He sustain you with His strong comforting arms around you and your family. Alan sounded like a very successful man in work, play, family and in his Christian life. You and he made such an attractive couple. God bless you as you move through this intense grief to a peaceful, resigned and less painful future without him physically by your side. You will always keep him in your heart. Prayerfully, Esther Henck Christian
