“ I've known Al since high school. We all hung out at different places on Main St. in Royersford. Fortunately they didn't enforce the loitering law. He worked at Clark's garage, and the guys hang out there til he was done work. The guys have been going to breakfast the last 7-8 years, once a month and we all will miss Al's laugh, that hasn't changed since high school. Great guy and dear friend, Al save us a seat. “ Alan was such a good friend to all who knew him. I can only smile when I think of Alan, although he will be sorely missed. He was a proud American who served his country with dignity. I could always count on his honesty, loyalty, and support in good times and bad. The world was a better place because of Alan Sweisford, of that there is no doubt; but now his trial is over and he is in a better place. Rest in peace dear friend.

“ Alan was a life long friend in mine. We met in second grade at Royersford Elementary. Back then, kids traded baseball cards which we used to do. Al was a Phillies fan and always managed to get me to trade mine to him. Alan was on the wrestling team in high school and I often challenged him. Being smaller than me I always thought I could win but his skills as a wrestler made him too formidable for me. Being Veterans and members of the Elks Club kept our friendship going. I loved playing in the Red House Golf Open and heading up to the family cabin. I will miss Al dearly but I know he is in a good place now. God Bless You Al!
