“ Paula and Christina,

I cannot believe what I just read in the obituaries ... I wish that you could have called me to let me know. I cannot imagine the grief that you both are going through right now. Everyone that loved AJ and had passed away were waiting for him at the gates of heaven. He is in paradise now and there is no more pain. I imagine that AI was the first in line to see his son again.

Please call me when you see this.

Love,

“ I was neighbors with AI. When ever i was sitting in my car he always would walk over with his flashlight and scare me but it was just him checking on me. There was one time i was changing my oil and i couldn't get the bolt off and he came over and got under my car and broke the bolt loose for me. Then march came around and i helped him move i called some of my friends up and we had a whole moving crew that helped out! i will cherish those memories for the rest of my life AI's personally was like no other he never held anything back and always said what was on his mind. RIP AI
