“ On this sunny Monday in June, I stopped to take a look at you. It brought back memories of how we met due to the Love You Had for the Basketball Net. I married a man who was raised on the streets that you were raised on. Yes , at age 3 you played and developed strong when young. Phoenix isle is known as “ My Kind Of Town” whenever “DAB” Albert Ingram was around. Now Sonny “Bopper” Byrum has a new friend On High , that we never have to worry about saying “Good Bye. Loving you and all you did for the Bearden- Byrum Family.

“ I was raised in Phoenixville and Dab is my cousin. Growing up was always a treat to talk to my older cousin about life and sports. My cousin gave me a job when he had the pool hall at the corner of High Street and Railroad Street. He was only one of the few that could talk to my dad " Bigum" when he had his moments. I was always welcome at the house and it was such a joy that I was there when he came back to Devereux. Ga to see the Harper-Ingram side of the family. To see the joy that he brought to the older ones was beyond words. Cousin thank you for always making me laugh and teaching me some valuable life lessons.
