“ Dearest Cindy,

I am so sad to hear about Your Alex. I can't imagine how you, as his Mom, are feeling right now. I just wish so much that I could help you in some way to make this sad time go away. I know it is always much more difficult when they are still pretty young adults like all of our children are. And from his obituary it sounds as though he was really enjoying his life.

I send you my deepest Sympathy and Compassion for your sadness and hope that you get through this very hard time.

Please tell all the rest of your family and the Howell family that I send my thoughts of Love to them too.

I will keep you in my Heart for a long time...

Much Love to you and Carly Dear Friend,

Steve Sonnefeld
