“ Dear Pastor Keim I was so saddened to hear of the loss of Alice. I reflect back to the time when you were pastoring in Jersey Shore, You and Alice were there with me in the baptism of my children. I will always remember Alice for her wonderful laugh and loving heart. Every year at christmas I think of her, for she always made the best choc. chip cookies. I pray that God comforts you with his loving and caring hand during this difficult time. We know that she is there visiting with mom and waiting by the golden gates. We love you and wrap you in our hearts as you grieve for this wonderful woman. May God Bless and keep you close. In christ love, Jolene Harstead Amend

“ To Pastor Keim, Steve, Judy and Wendy, It has been said that when there is a death in a family that the best thing to do for them is to sit quietly by and hold their hands and say nothing. Since Sandy and I cannot make this heartfelt moment in your lives, we would like to express our utmost love for you on the loss of a special Mother and Wife and Friend. It saddens us that we cannot be there to celebrate Sister Alice's life. When Sandy and I were under your Shepherd's care and ministry at Warminister Church, it amazed me that Alice had such love for everyone and every living thing. She was a Shepherd's wife, she loved you very much, and it showed in her ministry she shared with you. Judy, you are my Heroine. I appreciated you and admired you the first time we met. You have served this nation with honor and your selflessness of service puts you above all others. I think you get it from your mother. Steve, I think you were the apple of your Mother's eye, and Wendy, you, too, were loved with no bounds by your Mother. I know she loved those special grandchildren as well, and she will surely be missed. Our loss is Christ's gain, and we will never forget the precious cards she sent. Each and every one was made with so much love that she made us feel so special, and you really felt Christ's love in them. With heartfelt condolences and love to each of you.
