“ Alice (Affectionately “Peeps”), Janice and Joann My deepest and most sincere sympathy to you over the passing of your mother. Upon learning of Teeny’s passing my thoughts flood me with memories of your mom, my mom and of our childhood. So many joyful experiences our mothers gave us. Your mom and my mom were the best of friends. They must have truly enjoyed each other’s company to maintain the lifelong friendship they had. I remember when they got together there was always laughter and upon reflection can hear thier laughter even now. I smile at the memories of you all and your wonderful mother and feel in my heart that with her passing two best friends have been reunited and are now sharing a good laugh. My Love, Thoughts and Prayers Tommy

“ Alice was such a lovely person and always made us laugh. I admired her for telling people what she thought but with a sweet gentle way. I was so happy to have had the honor of knowing such a lovely person. She will be missed. Alice, Janice and Joann you girls have always been there for her and my heartaches for the pain you are going through. Know can take away your memories. She will always be with you. Stay Strong...

“ Alice, Janice, Joann, I am truly sorry for the loss of your Mom. Words cannot convey the sorrow you feel at this time. As I drove by your house on Saturday, Janice, I thought of your mom and thought I should stop in to see how she was. So many times I should have. She was always respectful to me and I so appreciated that. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.
