“ I didn't know of Skip's passing I. I worked with he and his son Pete for years at Warner Company. Skip gave me a lot of laughs. I recall one classic. A coworker was “hard facing” (extended welding layers) on a LARGE end loader bucket. The bucket was inside a heated area and in a quarry is VERY cold in Winter. The coworker obviously stayed in that job double the amount of time needed. As maintenance workers walked by the welder on the bucket job, every day they'd crack up. The welder angrily asked “what the $&%% is so funny?” Unknown to him, Skip had used a soapstone and wrote on the back of the bucket where the welder didn't see It, “How much milk is in this bucket.” A classic from Skip. God bless Skip.

“ My brother Skip, was larger than life. He had a terrific laugh and was always fun to be around and always ornery. I have a lot of memories of our growing up together. I will miss him dearly! My deepest condolences to Pete, Lisa and Gladys.
Love, Polly

“ We will never forget Mr. Wolfe. He was one of the best neighbors. He would always rush over to mow our grass when we didnt have a lawn mower. When he went over the bank he never lost a beer and never spilled a drop. Mr wolfe was always by our side as we were first time owners. There are so many more memories that we could share for all the years of being neighbors. We will always remember you. Love The Heitzman's

“ Uncle "Skip" - when I say his name I just smile! What wonderful, kind, fun memories I will never forget! While living at the "little" house on Peck Road; I would see Uncle Skip quite often outside with his dogs running around the yard. He would always say hello how are you and tell a joke or two!! He was a kind soul - I am sure all the angels greeted him with open arms! To Pete and Lisa along with the entire family. Although no words can really help to ease the loss you bear, just know that you are very close in every though and prayer! Love your (Nephew) Kevin & Sharon Moore
