“ We were saddened to return from our trip and learn of the passing of Angelo. A wonderful, kind, and talented man who made this world a better place. It was always a pleasure interacting with Angelo on the WCU campus, and he was a magician in restoring decaying campus structures and surfaces, and always did his work with pride and excellence. As a descendant of Italian masons myself, I was always intrigued by the projects Angelo worked on and asked lots of questions -- he took the time to explain the best way to handle the job and some "tricks" that would add to the beauty. Angelo and Anna were proud WCU parents and they had a powerful influence on the campus. Angelo will be missed and our prayers are with the entire Verducci Family during this very difficult time. “ Dear Anna,

My heart sank when I saw the announcement about Angelo's passing which just appeared on the university email account. I am so sorry further that services are today. Please know Kenda and I send you prayers. I have such fond memories of the two of you from your years of a amazing service and dedication to not just West Chester University but to the students and those of we faculty who were lucky enough to have you in our lives. Angelo did so much to make this campus safe, secure and a more beautiful place, through his craftsmanship, to work. You both made a wonderful couple for our students to see. I will always remember the two of you attending our forensics banquet and the big smile he wore as you accepted your recognition for outstanding service as a "friend of forensics." Blessings to you and your family. With gratitude and deep fondness,

Kevin & Kenda Dean

“ I remember when I was a child and my father used to tell me stories about his big brother Angelo, protecting him from everyone and everything, even if I've always thought that they were the two really little “naughty” guys ;-)

Uncle Angelo was an honest man, devoted to his family and his Italian roots.

During hot Italian summer, he was used to make me practice my elementary English; many years later, I went to USA with my husband and my little daughter and we still remember how happy he was to have us in his house.

He brought us on big sandy beaches in Wildwood, where he used to push a big trolley, with big wheels, full of stuff while telling us funny stories about his life!

We will miss you uncle Angelo!

“ Della mia infanzia ricordo con gioia tutti gli avvincenti racconti che mio papà mi narrava di zio Angelo, un fratellone protettivo e forzuto, che con grande coraggio lo difendeva sempre dai ragazzotti più grandi, ma la mia impressione è che i veri monelli fossero loro due!! Il ricordo di zio Angelo è quello di un uomo onesto legato alla sua famiglia e alle sue radici.

Ricordo quando nelle caldi estati calabresi mi facevi esercitare con il mio inglese elementare e quando da adulta, con mio marito Stefano e mia figlia Chiara piccolissima, ci hai accolto in America.

Un sorriso pensando a quando spingevi il tuo carrellino con ruotoni lungo le bianche spiagge di Wildwood, raccontandoci tra mille risate le vostre avventure d'infanzia. Ci mancherai zio! Paola “ Zio Angelo è stato un uomo buono e generoso, così come tutta la sua famiglia. Quando siamo venuti a trovarvi durante il nostro viaggio di nozze ci avete accolti con affetto e ci siamo sentiti a casa. Abbiamo dei bellissimi ricordi e vi siamo vicini.

“ Mio fratello Angelo ha sempre protetto i suoi affetti, con lui ho condiviso gioie e dolori. Come dimenticare le ragazzate che facevamo insieme. Mi proteggeva, mi ha insegnato ad amare la famiglia, il lavoro e gli amici. Caro Angelo per me sei stato un grande fratello, un premuroso padre e un compagno di giochi. Ti ringrazio per quello che mi hai dato, mi lasci un grande vuoto.

“ I do remember those summers as a kid in Calabria, when we were waiting for Zio Angelo dall’America to arrive, with that kind of expectation that only good news can bring. And there he was, with his loud and generous laugh, the witty eyes of someone who has seen a lot and the American accent that made his dialect irresistible. I remember when he would blow into his thumb pretending to inflate his biceps, or when he would tell me “tell your father (his younger brother) that I’m more handsome than he is!”. He was an extraordinary man and we will miss him.

“ Io me le ricordo quelle estati da piccola in Calabria, quando si aspettava l’arrivo di zio Angelo dall’America come solo le belle notizie sanno farsi aspettare. E poi arrivava lui, con la risata generosa, gli occhi furbi di chi ne ha viste tante e quel l’accento americano che rendeva il suo dialetto irresistibile. Me lo ricordo quando soffiava nel suo pollice facendo finta di gonfiarsi i bicipiti, o quando mi diceva “dillo a tuo padre (suo fratello) che sono più bello di lui!”. È stato un uomo straordinario e ci mancherà.
