

Anna C. Judd

July 7, 1950 - February 18, 2026

Anna "Nina" Judd, age 75, of West Chester, PA, passed away peacefully on February 18, 2026 after a brave battle with Alzheimer's disease. She is survived by her daughters, Ellen Judd of Phoenixville, PA and Andrea Velez (Paul) of Sykesville, MD.

Anna was born on July 7, 1950 in Quindici, Italy to Andrea and Giuseppina (Caracciolo) Russo, and immigrated to the United States with her family as a child. Anna devoted her life to being a mother and worked tirelessly to provide for her daughters whom she loved dearly. She would tell you her greatest accomplishment in life was raising her girls.

Anna graduated from Immaculata University and retired from Vanguard after 20 years of service. Anna had many passions in life that included being an avid reader, crossword puzzle enthusiast, a love for animals, music, cooking, sewing and knitting. She had a great sense of humor and was an incredibly kind, strong and resilient woman.

Besides her parents, Anna was preceded in death by her brothers, Aniello, Fernando, and Americo Russo.

Her daughters would like to thank her hospice caregiver, Tira Boynton, for the wonderful care she took of Anna and her hospice nurse, Michelle Ferguson, for the incredible compassion and support she showed Anna and her girls.

Anna will be deeply missed by her family.

“ Anna was a sweet soul. We had lots of fun playing bingo & other games at Eagleview, where she & my father both resided. I always kept my eyes on her when Ellen & Andrea couldn't be there. We went for walks, attended music events and did crafts. My heart goes out to you girls & may Anna rest in peace. Judy “Nina is my mothers first cousin, my second. She was always such a very sweet and loving person. I have many fond memories of time spent together in my childhood. She was very smart and very loving. She adored her daughters more than anything. I've prayed for her during this battle with Alzheimer's as my mom and other family members have suffered with this awful disease. She was blessed with amazing and loving daughters who loved her just as fiercely as she did them. I'm so sorry for the loss of this beautiful, gentle loving soul. In heaven they celebrate without this terrible disease, whole and together again. God bless her always and her daughters.
