

Anthony Vattimo, Jr.

January 12, 1944 - February 5, 2024

Anthony Vattimo Jr., age 80, husband of Beverly K. (Pippert) Vattimo of Phoenixville, PA, formerly, Columbia, MD, Chicago, IL, Louisville, KY, Detroit, MI, and Pittsburgh, PA, passed away on Monday, February 5, 2024 in the Arden Courts of King of Prussia. Born on January 12, 1944, in Stowe Township, PA, he was a son of the late Mary (Kulick) and Anthony Vattimo Sr.

Having spent around 50 years in the elevator industry, Anthony started learning his trade in the drafting room and worked his way to become President and owner of Technical Inspection of D.C., Inc., Columbia, MD; a company he founded with his wife in the early 90s.

Anthony met his wife in Saginaw, MI when he showed up at the hospital Beverly worked at, to find out why she called to cancel the elevator service contract of the company he worked for. Through his persistence, he not only won back the contract, but he finally won a date with Beverly, which led to 46 years of marriage.

Anthony and Beverly's first and only child together was born in Schaumburg, IL in 1984. Anthony and Beverly also helped to raise together his two sons. On December 17, 1989, Anthony and Beverly moved to Columbia, MD and planted their roots, before opening their business, which they ran together for approximately 30 years. Anthony was so proud of their company, and was recognized as one of the top elevator consultants in the world. He was an expert in his field and highly sought after for his knowledge of vertical transportation. Some of his accomplishments include consulting on the elevator and escalator design and specifications for Ford's Field in Detroit; the Baltimore-Washington International Airport; and many government buildings, including several international embassies.

He was a member of the Boaz Masonic Home Lodge #850 of Louisville, KY (F. & A.M.). He was a huge fan of music. Sharing music was a special bond he had with his daughter, Nicole; and which ignited a passion in her that led her to sing in her own band. He loved boating and being anywhere near the water. He and Beverly owned boats together and spent much special time on the bay, traveling to different marinas up and down the Chesapeake. Anyone who knew Tony, knew he had a unique and dark sense of humor. He was always ready with a joke or comeback, even if it may not have been the most appropriate time. But, that was just him.

Anthony always supported his family with anything they wanted to pursue. He was an incredibly hard worker, often in service of providing the best for his family. If it were possible, he would have put 9 days in a week. His wife remembers him as an incredible provider who worked harder and longer than anyone to better his family's situation.

Even as his memory was fading, he would have a huge smile waiting when his daughter entered the room, and still managed to pick on his son-in-law. How very on-brand for Tony.

In addition to his loving wife, Anthony is survived by his children: Anthony Vattimo III, and his wife Debra, Joseph Vattimo, and Nicole Vattimo, wife of William Forbes; grandchildren: Anthony IV, Jonathan, Nicholas, Samantha and Chase; sister-in-law: Sally Vattimo; two nieces: Christa Vattimo and Kala

Williamson, and his nephew: Shane Vattimo; and fur-grandchild: Boo. He was preceded in death by his brothers: Ronald and Keith Vattimo.

Arrangements are being handled by the Campbell - Ennis - Klotzbach Funeral Home, Inc. Condolences may be offered online at www.PhoenixvilleFuneralHome.com.

“ It’s sad when someone passes but you’ll always have memories of time spent together to look back on. We started out as neighbors seeing each other at neighborhood gatherings until one night when we ran into Tony and Beverly at a restaurant. We joined them for drinks and that’s where our friendship began. From then on we were fortunate to have spent a lot of time with them from playing pinnacle to celebrating birthdays, anniversaries and especially St. Patrick’s Day. Tony definitely loved music and he always had stories to tell so there never was a dull moment. Tony was a loving kind man and would do anything to help you out. We cherished his friendship and will miss him but we will always have our memories of him. Cheers to you Tony ❤️

Our deepest sympathy to Beverly and Nicole

My condolences to Bev and Nicole,

Tony was a good friend to me. He came to Quality Elevator and gave me opportunities I never thought I could achieve. He was a great mentor and a better friend. I first met Tony in Chicago just before he came to Maryland to run Quality Elevator it was one of the most memorable nights of my life. Went to a Chicago Bulls game box seat in their heyday of Michael Jordan, then a night out on the town with Tony, my brother Rick who also left us too soon in April 2023. I don't think the statute of limitations is up quite yet, so I will leave the rest of the night there. Needless to say Rick and I loved Tony, he was never phony about his ways and always let you know where you stood with him. Tony will be sorely missed in the elevator trade and as a close friend and confidant. I hope Rick and Tony will connect up in heaven although I am not sure how ready they are for that dynamic duo.

Thank you Tony for all of your guidance and friendship.
