November 23, 1940 - September 26, 2025

Arlene M. Rossiello, of Malvern, Pennsylvania, passed away on September 26, 2025. She was surrounded by her beloved family over her final days. Her grace, loving kindness, creative spirit and generous heart will be deeply missed by all who knew her.

Born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania on November 23, 1940, to Vincent and Esther DeLeo (Crocco), Arlene grew up in South Philadelphia and later Overbrook with her brother Carmen and sister Esther. A graduate of the West Catholic High School class of 1958, she began working at Central Penn Bank in Philadelphia where she met her husband Patrick L. Rossiello. Arlene was a devoted wife of 62 years and best friend to her husband Pat. She took great pride and joy in her family providing a warm and nurturing home to her children Andrea and Patrick. Her impeccable decorating, green thumb, and culinary skills made her home the gathering place for holidays and family celebrations over the years. She especially loved Christmastime, turning her home into a wonderland that delighted all, but especially her grandchildren, Dennis, Lindsey, Nicole, Jack, Rachel and Patrick, and great-grandchildren Tres, Wyatt, and Natalie.

Arlene found immense joy in spending time with her family and friends and indulging her creative spirit. She was an avid decorator, gardener, cook, volunteer for the Church and practitioner of arts and crafts. She approached life with enthusiasm and a quiet compassionate grace. Family and friends will remember her warm hospitality and her love for hosting family gatherings.

She is survived by husband Patrick L. Rossiello, children Andrea M. Hajnik (Dennis) and Patrick V. Rossiello (Susie), her brother Carmen DeLeo, brother-in-law Robert Rossiello, nieces and nephews Lisa Rossiello (Bill), Michael Rossiello (Laura), Carmen DeLeo Jr. (Lisa), Denise DeLeo (Mike), Stephen Abbonizio, Michael Abbonizio, Mark DeLeo (Denise), and Debbie Robertson (Tom).
