“ Mom's laugh when she was watching TV would reverberate through the house when I was a kid, keeping me awake. I soon learned to love it, and that same laugh would really bother the "grumpier" folks at Walnut Woods during dinner time. That didn't stop her from laughing!

Aunt Barb used to watch I Love Lucy all the time, I remember she used to have a small TV in the kitchen when she lived in Syracuse NY , at that time she acted and sounded just like Lucille Ball , plus with Aunt Barbs red hair. Love ❤️ you and will miss you. Niece Tina

Aunt Barb was hilarious! I loved coming to see the family whether it be in Syracuse, or our cherished family trek for Thanksgivings, I always looked forward to our visits. I laughed so hard and tried to be like her and her kids! My brother and cousin Mike were like brothers, and all of the girls like sisters, and we laughed and sang funny songs and had a blast! I miss and cherish those memories. She had jokes when I was a kid thqt I will always associate with her. Two such story/poems, authors unknown, one called Me Mudder and the other Cinderfella. I love you Auntie Barbara, and I know your having a laugh right now, I can feel it in my heart, and thats where you'll always be until we meet again! <3
