“ Remembering Barbara - my singing partner at BFC. She always made a funny remark before we walked in to sit down on Sunday mornings in the choir so it was hard not to laugh. Smiling and joking - that is the Barbara I remember. She was so brave when God took Leon home with Him. Now, they are together again. I am sorry for your loss, Lori, but she left us with many wonderful memories.

“ Barbara was a wonderful neighbor of mine for many years. I miss her a lot. She was always so cheerful and friendly. I used to care for her cat when she went to the shore. The flowers she planted in front of her townhouse were so bright and cheerful.
