“ Summer visits to Aunt Bea's house were a regular part of my childhood, and I'll always remember the warm welcome we received every time we arrived. When I had the opportunity to introduce her to my then two year-old son as his Great Great Aunt Bea, I knew the word "great" had more than one meaning. She was a great lady, and I'm honored to have known her.

“ Friends are angels here on earth. Aunt Bea was one of those angels. She was such a good sport on trips to Yellowstone, Seattle, Portland, Oregon and Maine. Three years ago we even visited Quebec City when she was 95! Thank you dear aunt for a lifetime of great memories.

“ Our cousin Bea was raised by her grandparents, also our great great grandparents..We are so glad we made the trip from across the country for her birthday this June. The passing of Bea is the closing of an era in our family. Our symphy goes out to her many friends and relatives; we will all greatly miss this wonderfully bright, cheerful, and inspiring lady.
