“ When I think of Aunt Blanche the words that come to mind are gentle loving sweet. She was such a beautiful person. As a little girl I always wanted to be like her when I grew up. Blanch was there for me in some very difficult times in my life for which I will always be indebted to her. I love you clench and I thank God for bringing you into my life.

“ Blanch and her husband Ed were essentially the most "saving" influence during an extremely difficult and trying time of my early life. Aunt Blanch, as she was known to me, and Ed will forever be held in high esteem in my heart, Good By and Bless you Aunt Blanch, now you can finally be with Ed.

“ I remember her Easter candy, Christmas gingerbread houses, cakes (even chocolate with sourkraut) and kool-aid in the colored tin cups. Most of all I remember her smile and laughter and how good she made me feel!
