“ I have known the Yannick family for years because of Blanche. She was one of kind...fun, ornery, a great sense of humor and I could go on and on. The fun times we had at Dell's to tea every morning at my house. We had fun times with both Blanche and Pop. I specifically remember one time I had surgery and she and my husband brought me home from the hospital and I went straight to bed. My husband went to have my prescriptions filled and Blanche climbed into bed with me!! We were also always able to talk seriously about the important things in life that were happening at the time. Blanche and Pop took my husband, Mark, in as part of the family. She helped us get dressed for our wedding. She was always there when we needed her or just wanted to say hello. She will be sorely missed by both of us.

“ *Dear Cousins,
Aunt Blanche was very special to all of us. She added light and laughter to all our family gatherings and introduced us to her most delicious golumpkis. My mother loved her like a sister and our whole family mourns her loss. Our hearts are broken but as with my Mom, there is some comfort in knowing that she is reunited with her true love.*

Sending all our love and prayers to all of you.
