

Brad J. Fox

June 26, 1982 - September 9, 2021

Brad Jason Fox, husband of Kristen M. Salvia, of Cherry Hill, New Jersey, passed away on September 9th 2021 at the age of 39. Brad was born in Plainfield, New Jersey on June 26, 1982 to Melvin Fox, of Kissimmee, FL and the late Patricia (Gilroy) Fox. He was raised with his two brothers Walter Bohn, of Downingtown, PA and Bryan Fox, Hamilon, NJ.

Brad attended Hillsborough High School in New Jersey, where he graduated in 2000, and Fairmont State University in West Virginia, where he graduated in 2004 with Bachelors of Arts in Speech Communication.

In 2004 he met the love of his life, Kristen, and they married shortly after, in 2010. The couple lived in Florida while Brad worked for the Hertz company. There, they welcomed their first son, Aiden, in September 2012, and made many memories with their Florida family and friends.

In 2016, Brad and Kristen moved to Virginia in order to further his career with Hertz. They continued to make memories, including welcoming their second son, Luke, in August of 2015.

In 2019, Brad and Kristen were able to move back to their home state of New Jersey, and in July 2021, they achieved their goal of buying their first home in Cherry Hill, NJ.

Brad was a devoted husband and father. He worked hard to provide for his family of four in many ways. He took his young family on countless trips, outings and vacations and instilled in his sons a love of trying new things and an appreciation for sports, learning, friendship and family time.

Brad was an avid sports fan. Most notably, he was loyal to his beloved WVU Mountaineers and the New York Mets. He was well versed in sports history and trivia and enjoyed attending live sporting events, especially baseball, wrestling and football.

Brad was well loved wherever he went. He was known as the life of the party and a friend to all. He leaves countless family members, friends and acquaintances with many happy memories of time spent with him. Brad was a wonderful husband and father, a beloved son, brother, nephew, cousin and uncle. His loss will be felt deeply by all who knew him. His wife Kristen will carry on his memory as his sons Luke and Aiden carry on his joyful heart.

A celebration of Brad's life will be announced for June 2022 as a 40th Birthday Celebration!

In lieu of flowers, please share your favorite memory of Brad.

Arrangements are being handled by the Campbell-Ennis-Klotzbach Funeral Home, Inc. Condolences may be offered online at www.PhoenixvilleFuneralHome.com.

Tribute Wall

“ I'm incredibly saddened by this news. Brad was one of my college roommates, my boss for the newspapers at Fairmont State, and an amazing friend. We had so many good times. Prayers for his wife, kids, family, and friends. He ad such a big heart. ”

Tosha (Halstead) Morris - September 28, 2021 at 05:45 PM

LG

“Say not in grief he is no more, but in thankfulness that he was”

Dear Brad,

It is heartbreaking to be on this page writing these words to you. I will miss you terribly.

Many friends and family members, including myself have been describing you as the life of the party... I hope you know that you were so much more. I will remember you as a kind, considerate, generous, caring and yes, fun-loving guy. I will remember you as a wonderful husband to Kristen and a loving, devoted dad to Aiden and Luke. You were the very best son, brother, cousin and NEPHEW. You loved with a passion, and to you, family was everything. You left us with so many happy memories which we have been sharing and will continue to share. Through these shared memories your legacy will live on. I will miss your annual visits to Vero Beach and the fun that we had. You touched all our lives in such a special way. I feel so fortunate that you were and will always be part of our family.

Thank you for all the wonderful memories Brad, and thank you for being you.

*Love you nephew,
Aunt Linda*

Linda Genovese - September 23, 2021 at 02:43 PM

FG

“ *Our family will never be the same but we all will do our best to keep Brad’s memory alive. He was an awesome cousin and a true friend. Our love and support are with Kristen and the boys and our hearts go out to Mel, Bryan and Walt.
We love you, Brad!
Francesca, Tim & James*

Francesca Genovese - September 16, 2021 at 07:38 PM