“ Dear Brian,
I don't know where to start. When we met it was sparks that flew. You moved in with me 3 days of knowing me and I knew you would be in my life forever. We opened Handyman of Your Dreams Llc and it took off like the light we knew it to be. We struggled through life as many couples do but we made it work for us. I miss your light I miss our love story. I NEVER thought it would end. So I'll say good night but never good bye. Daniel and Glory are on the right track and with your guidance they will be great like you their dad. I love you now as I loved you then. Good night sweet prince. I love you forever.

“ Brian was well known to my family and I, as a matter of fact, he stayed with us on numerous occasions when he had nowhere else to go. Yes, he had his mischievous ways like we all do but he was a very knowledgeable and adventurous young man and he was fun to have around.

During the times he stayed with us I spoke to him, advised him as I would my own son. He listened but of course like most young people they do their own thing when all is said and done.

Most of his friends (school friends and even other young men that he knew would tell my husband that Brian was his big son. We are devastated by his passing and so it is with a heavy heart that I, on behalf of my husband, my son and myself, express our sincere condolences to Brian's parents and his entire family. May God grant you'll the strength and faith during this very sad time. May his soul rest in eternal peace.
