“ Dear Keith,

I was so sorry to hear about the death of your father at such a young age. My father passed away when I was 28, and, since I was not married, relied on the support of my family and friends. Hold on to your memories and be sure you pass them down to your children.

Sincerely,

“ I think the best way to judge a man is by the family that he created and that surrounded him. He always loved talking about the three of you. He will be missed, his spirit will live on through all of you. All of our hearts are with all of you.

“ Even though I only new Brian for a short time, I was touched by the short time I knew him. I will miss talking to him about his family and just life in general. Most of all I will miss his smile that he always had, even on the worst of days. I wish there were more like him in the world, because people like Brian made the world a lot better for the people around him. I'll miss ya buddy.

“ Dearest Donna, Keith, Becky and Greg-
We only wish we had gotten to know your father better.

What Makes a Dad

*God took the strength of a mountain,
The majesty of a tree,
The warmth of a summer sun,
The calm of a quiet sea,
The generous soul of nature,
The comforting arm of night,
The wisdom of the ages,
The power of the eagle's flight,
The joy of a morning in spring,
The faith of a mustard seed,
The patience of eternity,
The depth of a family need,
Then God combined these qualities, When there was nothing more to add, He knew His masterpiece was complete, And so,*

He called it ... Dad
