“ Uncle Carl stood for everything that is good in the world: love, strength, compassion, and devotion. He had many titles all at which he excelled. He was a devoted husband, selfless father, loving grandfather, uncle, brother, and friend, but the relationships he shared went much deeper. His family takes comfort in knowing that he is finally reunited with his wife (Aunt Dolores) .His kids and grandkids were the love of his life. He taught all of them to be better people by his example!

• He taught all of them that Kindness matters. Countless people said he was the strongest and kindest man they knew and that life is about the little things. Those are the memories you're creating on a daily basis. He will always be in my prayer! Deacon Len Long
