

Carol A. Scott

June 29, 1950 - March 26, 2026

Carol A. Scott, age 75, Wife of David Scott of Phoenixville, Pennsylvania, passed away on Thursday, March 26, 2026 in the Lankenau Hospital, Wynnewood, PA. Born in Yeadon, she was the daughter of Lois (Conklin) and Giovanni Antonelli.

Carol lived a life defined by quiet strength, kindness, and a deep love for the people around her. She dedicated much of her working life as a paraprofessional with the Tredyffrin School District, where she supported children with emotional needs. In that role, Carol gave not only her time and skill, but also her patience, compassion, and steady presence-making a lasting difference in the lives of countless students and families.

Outside of her work, Carol found joy in the simple and meaningful moments of life. She loved walking in nature, especially through the peaceful trails of Valley Forge and Charlestown Park, where she could reflect and recharge. She had a sharp and curious mind, always keeping it active with crosswords, puzzles, and cross-stitch-finding both challenge and comfort in these quiet pastimes.

Above all else, Carol's greatest joy was her family. She was a proud and devoted grandmother who cherished every moment spent with her grandchildren. Whether cheering from the sidelines at their sporting events or simply sharing time together, she took immense pride in each of them and loved them deeply.

Carol will be remembered for her gentle spirit, her dedication to others, and the love she gave so freely. Her legacy lives on in the lives she touched-in her family, her students, and all who had the privilege of knowing her.

Carol is survived by her loving husband, David Scott, her three children, David Billhime, Steven Billhime, Norman, husband of Kelly Billhime, her two Grandchildren, Nathan Billhime, Kaitlyn Billhime, and her nieces and nephew Michael, Jennifer, and Devin. She was preceded in death by her parents Lois, and brothers, Michael Antonelli, John Antonelli.
