“ Your mother came into my life when I truly needed the support of another person. I met her on Christmas Eve of 2000 at St. Ann’s Church. I remember feeling so upset that day over many things that were happening in my life at the time. I was feeling sorry for myself and I sat next to Carolyn and her girls at Mass. After she welcomed to the parish and spoke to me, I began to feel so much better. She told me about her life circumstances as our daughters played together in the church pew and she changed my perspective on my own feelings. I felt the lord was working through her that Christmas. She was so cheery and kind and we always kept in touch as members of the parish. Thank you Carolyn for touching my heart and my soul on that Christmas Day long ago. To Erin and Emily I am truly so very sorry for your loss and I will pray for both of you and keep you in my thoughts.

“ Sending prayers for a beautiful honoring of your mom and for a bright future for you girls, one that includes wonderful memories of her. Your mom was one of the sweetest people I have had the pleasure to know, and I could always count on a great chat when I ran into her around town. Your mom was my son’s third grade teacher for 1/2 the year, and she was very understanding, patient, and good with him, for which I am always grateful. God Bless you!

“ Too many memories to list here from over the years. Will think of Carolyn every time I watch or read about swimming. Thought and prayers coming your way. Such a remarkable person who fought the good fight and won the race as St. Paul so eloquently stated in his letters.

“ Emily and Erin, my heart goes out to you both. You mother was a wonderful woman, loving, caring nurturing, and could crochet anything 😊 I loved talking with her about what she was working on next, and sharing with her my latest crochet projects with her. She was so generous, and always helpful. I will miss her. Please let me know if there is anything I can do.
