

Celestine P. "Pepi" (Magarowicz) Fialkowski

April 1, 1927 - April 23, 2015

Celestine "Pepi" Fialkowski, 88, of Phoenixville, passed away surrounded by her loving family on April 23rd, 2015. She is the widow of Teddy Fialkowski, who passed away on March 1st, with whom she spent 66 years of marriage. She was also preceded in death by her brother, Stanly Magarowicz and sister, Antoinette Hoover.

Pepi was a breath of fresh air to anyone she encountered. She was a loving wife and mother, an exceptional grandmother and great grandmother and a wonderful friend. She retired from the Container Corp. in 1992. Pepi loved to sew and shop with her granddaughter in her free time. She loved to have her annual family picnic at her home.

Pepi is survived by her son, Butch (Steve) Fialkowski and Deb Hershey of Harrisburg; only granddaughter, Kristin (Fialkowski) Smith and husband, Drew Smith of New Cumberland; and one great-granddaughter, Zoey Smith. Also surviving are one brother, Frank Magarowicz and Judy, one sister, Francis Galati and Bob; along with many other cousins, nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held privately at the convenience of the family. Memorial contributions may be made in Pepi's name to Holy Trinity Church, 212 Dayton Street, Phoenixville, PA 19460. Arrangements are being handled by the Campbell-Ennis-Klotzbach Funeral Home, Inc. Condolences may be offered online at www.PhoenixvilleFuneralHome.com.
