“ To the Grater Family, I recall Bud from the days my Dad worked at BF Goodrich. It really doesn't seem like that many years ago. I am sorry for your loss... Bud

“ Russ, We've never met. Your Grandfather was a brother to my Grandfather Frank Grater. My mother Catherine Grater Jones was a daughter of Frank. She was a first cousin to your mother Ethel. I have memories of Bud as I walked up Main St in Royersford with my sister Jan who was named after Janet Grater. Bud always stopped and talked to us after our Mom died in 1933. But mostly I remember your Mother - She was so good to us after our mother died and would remember us with gifts through the years. We would see her often since she worked at the bank in Spring City. She was a wonderful lady. We were fond of her. We lost touch with Bud and Ethel after we married and moved from town. I just wanted to say I'm sorry for your loss. There aren't too many Graters left anymore. God bless you. Phyllis Jones Rathbun
