“ Peggy Anne and Rich Uncle Art is up there with my Dad talking about Navy football and playing a little pigskin. Probably talking about the Friday night fights and Babe Ruth baseball. Always dapper and strong, he will be missed, but there are so many good memories to hold on to. You are in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Dear Peggy Anne, Rich and family, We are so very sorry for the loss of your Dad and Granddad. The love, devotion and care that you gave him went above and beyond. I'm sure Aunt Peg looked down on all of you and was very proud. He is at peace finally and I am sure they are dancing, as you said, celebrating their anniversary and reunion. Love, Sandy, Bob and Family
