

Charles P. Hafner Jr.

August 30, 1960 - October 21, 2016

Charles P. Hafner, Jr., age 56, of Spring City, passed away on Friday, October 21, 2016 in LifeCare Hospitals of Chester County.

Born on August 30, 1960 in Norristown, he was a son of the late Charles P. Hafner Sr. and Cynthia (Babacz) Hafner, of Royersford. He was a graduate of Spring-Ford High School class of 1978.

Throughout his adult life, Charles maintained a positive and grateful attitude. He kept his sense of humor and his independence. He loved spending time with his family and lifetime friends. He was also a talented high school wrestler, swimmer and diver. He loved watching Penn State Football, Nascar and Tennis. He enjoyed fishing, hunting, nature and being outdoors as well as going on hiking trails.

In addition to his mother, he is survived by Son, Charles P. (fiance to Jill Polinski) Hafner III of Collegeville; Brother, Ken J. Hafner of Pleasanton, CA; Great-granddaughter, Kayla DiGiacomo; and his Fiance, Rita Mandik of Collegeville, PA. Mr. Hafner was also pre-deceased by a Sister, Carolyn Hafner.

I didn't know Chuck all that well. I live at the same apts. he did. Every time I saw him he would tell me how good I smelled. It made me feel really good, Chuck was always smiling and had kind words for everyone. You will be missed by many.

“ The Hafners and my family lived in the same rural (at that time) neighborhood...Mingo and Mennonite Roads outside of Royersford. I was older than Chuck, but knew of him, his brother Ken and sister Carolyn, through my younger sisters and brother. I am so sorry to hear of his passing.

“ I am so sorry to hear. My fondest childhood memories include my neighborhood playmate, Charles. We had A LOT of fun Playing outdoors in the fields, sledding in the winter, swimming in the summer, football in the fall. I was often inspired by his athletic strength and fortunate to have had him in my childhood life.
