“ One of the first projects I ever had at Sunoco Logistics was working with Chet on a mapping project back in 1988. He was friendly and helpful then and continued to be for the rest of the time that I worked with him, even after he "retired". My sincere regrets to his family and friends. I will miss him. -- Rich Dalasio

“ *To Chet's Family
I had the pleasure of knowing and working with Chet at STV. We had many good conversations about life in general. He was a true friend who will be greatly missed.*

“ Chet will be missed by all of us who knew and worked with him at Sunoco. No matter the circumstances he was always ready with a smile and a comment in order to lighten the mood. I'll always remember his stories about being a bouncer as a young man, and I fondly recall his skill at making "Irish Coffee"; he was a master. Chet and Karen and his family are in our thoughts.

“ I had the privilege to know and work with Chet at Montello several years ago. We shared Earl Grey tea...he willingly drank any I gave him (I didn't like it!). He often spoke of you, Karen, and thought the world of Brianna. We are all better having known Chet. Barbara Trimble Goga
