“ I met him during a blizzard 10 years ago. It was right after my Father died and he pointed to a bulletin board in the West End where my Father’s name appeared honoring his passing. He along with the President offered to have my Dad’s membership number be my number. We conversed with each other for hours and afterward he said, that he’d be my father if I needed him to be. Since then I affectionately referred to him as “Daddy.” For 10 years we chatted with each other pretty much on a daily and nightly basis. For 10 years we talked, laughed and poked fun at one another and many others. Those memories will never ever go away and although it hurts to say goodbye, I will always have those fond memories. If there is a charge to get into heaven, then Saint Peter please put it on my tab because he’s not going to pay. It’s on me my friend! Fly on up there and be pain free and happy forever and ever. I’ll never ever forget our times together. RIP Daddy and my special condolences to your Family. You will always be loved. Tim.
