

Charles S. Loomis

April 16, 1925 - May 3, 2022

Charles S. Loomis, age 97, husband of Shirley May (Lamborn) Loomis, of Honey Brook, Pennsylvania, passed away on Tuesday, May 3, 2022 at Tel-Hai Community. Born on April 16, 1925 in Nantmeal Village, Chester County, he was a son of the late Lora P. (Garvine) and Allen John Loomis.

After graduating high school, Charles served in the United State Army PFC Infantry Company 1, 315th Infantry Regiment, 79th Division from August 24, 1943 until his discharge on January 13, 1946. For his honorable service, Charles was awarded the Good Conduct Medal, the Distinguished Unit Badge, the European African Middle Eastern Campaign Medal with 4 Bronze Stars and the World War II Victory Medal.

He had been employed for many years at the former Jones Motor Company in Spring City until his retirement.

Funeral services will be held privately at the convenience of the family. Arrangements are being handled by the Cattermole - Klotzbach Funeral Home. Condolences may be offered online at www.RoyersfordFuneralHome.com.

Tribute Wall

TF

“Chuck and Shirley’s wedding was the first wedding I went to as a young child. They were traveling buddies of my parents and a fellow mason to my father. My mother was a garvine and 1st cousin to Chuck. He had a dry sense of humor which I think was the Garvine side. He will be missed by my sister myself and our families. Beth Schollenberger folkomer

Timothy Folkomer - May 10, 2022 at 06:52 PM