“ *The world has lost a fine man. Charles was filled with the Spirit. It showed in his gentleness, his smile. It showed in his nature and his character. I wish there were more like him. Thankful for the opportunity to have known him.
Blessings to all the family who feel the void left behind.
Praises that He's with his savior.

“ He was just the best man I know. Strong and vital to the very end. Sharp as a tack at 94. He was a tough umpire back in the day back in Gutheriesville, PA. And if memory serves me he was on the township board of supervisors for East Brandywine Township. Loved him dearly and he said Grace better than anyone I ever heard. RIP Pappap!
