

Charles "Pete" Cox

September 23, 1916 - August 8, 2012

Charles "Pete" Hugg Cox passed away Wednesday, August 8th at his home. He was with his family, extended family and beloved dogs and pussy cat. He was born in Orange, New Jersey on September 23, 1916 and lived his life in the Philadelphia area except for time spent in England and Ireland then Africa chasing Rommel to finally liberate Rome. He left the Army with the rank of Major. He attended Wyncroft School, Haverford School and graduated from Radnor High School. Pete attended the University of Pennsylvania upon returning from the war. He was married to Rachel Burges Tatnall for 62 years. He is survived by his daughter, Margaret Cox Bernhardt, and her husband James; son, Charles Hugg Cox III, and his wife Katherine; grandson, Andrew Joseph O'Brien; great granddaughter, Rachel Emily O'Brien; and loving caregiver/friend, Agnes K. Donnie and TBen Donnie. Pete was very involved in his community through local politics, the Paoli Fire Company, the Great Valley Association, the Phoenixville YMCA and the American Red Cross. He was an avid gardener who had a green thumb. He lived his life with integrity and compassion for others. He will be greatly missed. His family would appreciate donations in his name made to the Paoli Fire Company, 69 Darby Road, Paoli, PA 19301, Main Line Animal Rescue (MLAR), P.O. Box 89, Chester Springs, PA 19425, or the Chester County SPCA, 1212 Phoenixville Pike, West Chester, PA 19380. Arrangements are being handled by the Campbell-Ennis-Klotzbach Funeral Home, Inc. Condolences may be offered online at www.PhoenixvilleFuneralHome.com.

“ I am so saddened to hear about your loss. Death is such an unnatural and unfair part of life. God's purpose was never for people to die. Romans 6:23 tells us, “The wages sin pays is death, but the gift God gives is everlasting life.” God wants us to live forever on a perfect paradise earth. It will be a beautiful day when we will all be reunited with our loved ones again.

“ My deepest condolences in the loss of your dear father. What a wonderful and full life he lived! May you find comfort and hope in the Bible's promises of a resurrection whereby you can see your dear loved one again right here on a restored paradise earth! - Psalm 37:29. I encourage you to draw close to Jehovah, the God of all comfort, The Father of tender mercies, "who comforts us in all our tribulations." - 2 Corinthians 1:3&4. “Pete, we miss you here at the Paoli Fire Company. We thank you for all your years of service to us. I enjoyed the conversations you and I had from time to time. I will always remember your telling me about the unit you served with in the Army. "Seek, Strike and Destroy. The same unit my Father served in during World War II. Thanks for those great memories. I will miss you. Dan Green
