*Daddy, I really miss you. I think of you often. I wish I could hear your voice telling me that everything will work out. I miss making you laugh, especially when you would make fun of me when I sounded funny when I first got my teeth out and I kept saying that my lips were sticking together, we were on our way to church and you laughed so hard. I can't wait to see you again and give you a such a big hug. My love always
