

Chelsea Nicole Maddox

April 12, 1982 - December 5, 2017

Chelsea Nicole Maddox, 35, wife of Jeffrey Maddox, of Royersford, Pennsylvania, passed away on Tuesday evening, December 5, 2017 in the Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania. Born on April 12, 1982 in Mobile, Alabama, she was a daughter of Marianna F. (Kowalski) and her husband Elliot Greer, of Vero Beach, FL and George E. Lods and his wife Cecelia Jo, of Picayune, Mississippi.

A graduate of Washington Township High School in Sewell, NJ, Chelsea attended the University of South Alabama. She had been employed as a pet care provider for Pampered Petz Pet Sitting and Dog Walking.

Chelsea loved all animals, especially her two cats, was very involved in her children's lives and enjoyed arts and crafts, often enjoying working with her children on school projects. She was always the life of the party. She loved to laugh and make others laugh. Chelsea loved and gave her all without judgment and was always willing to forgive. She was an honest soul and never held a grudge. She made everyone she knew a better person.

The captain of the ship, Chelsea's life revolved around her family. She was an amazing wife and mother who was the rock and the glue of the family. She was a nurturer, always making sure that her family was emotionally happy and healthy and well taken care of. As cliché as it might sound, she and Jeff completed each other and their love for one another was unconditional.

In addition to her husband, parents and step-parents, Chelsea is survived by her children: Seth Maddox and Kendall Vrocher; siblings: Devin Lods, of Houston, TX, Ross Schoen, of Greenville, NC, Brooke Schoen, of Greenville, NC, Jake Lods, of Roseville, CA and Austin Lods, of Picayune, MS; step-sister: Becky Carpenter, of Picayune, MS; maternal grandfather: John Kowalski and his wife Vicki, of St. Louis, MO; and maternal grandmother: Launa Kowalski, of Johns Creek, GA. She was preceded in death by step-sister, Robin Barber.

“ Chelsea you will always live on in my heart! You were such a wonderful person! So many fun memories with you especially during Girl Scout adventures!

I will miss seeing you but knowing that I was able to talk to you and getting to tell you how I cherish our friendship comforts me! You know we all love you and always will!! Skylar said “Mom, Chelsea was so awesome”! You left an imprint on my daughters heart as well and I thank you for that! Jeff, Kendall, Seth and to all of Chelsea’s family and friends - my thoughts and prayers are with you all. Stay strong and live life to the fullest like Chelsea would want you to!

So far I haven't found the words to describe just how very special Chelsea was but Amazing is a start. She was loving, funny, vibrant, selfless, devoted, goofy, stubborn, brave, determined in anything she set her mind to, and a beautiful person in every way. Her laugh was infectious and she never held it back - if I close my eyes, I can hear her laugh and see her mischievous smile and know that this is one of the things she wanted us to remember and keep alive within ourselves. She lived fully in the little and big moments and shared her joy and energy with us all.

When I met Chelsea it was like meeting an old friend. She, Jeff, Kendall, and Seth quickly became like family and I'm so thankful to have had this honor and privilege. My family and I are also forever grateful to her - our family wouldn't be what it is today without her. She truly changed the course of our lives and saved a life. To us, she changed the world.

Chelsea loved her family more than anything - her husband Jeff and her children Kendall and Seth. She was a beautiful and fierce Mama Bear when it came to her family! I admire the depth of love and strength that she gave so freely to every aspect of her life, and her illness only deepened her commitment to her family and friends. I'll keep her with me always - her smile, her laugh, her warmth, her hugs, her antics, and all of the little and big times shared.

Thank you my friend.

“ I will always hold close the memory of the beautiful woman that I was privileged to know as my daughter-in-law...but experience as my daughter. I am so lucky to have been given the opportunity to spend a month with her, my son, and grandchildren this past October. I can never thank her enough for the joy she brought to my son and the beautiful gift of Kendall and Seth that she gave to our family and the world. There are no words to describe Jeff's loss, nor the loss felt by her children. I know that for me there is a void that cannot be filled. So I am gathering memories of her laughter, loving kindness, beauty, and spirit, and holding them close. Chelsea was truly a force of nature and one of the most beautiful souls I have ever encountered in this life.

Due to circumstances beyond my control, I am unable to be with her family and friends to celebrate her life, but I will be there in spirit, and I will never be without the gift of love she so generously shared with me. Forever in my heart my beautiful daughter.

“ I met Chelsea through the “Smule Sing” app. We took karaoke to a whole other level. Randomly one day I decided to post a song I played on the guitar, Chelsea sang the vocals and it was incredible. We have a least a dozen tunes recorded. We would exchange ideas and song suggestions... a virtual band! We quickly became friends and have been since. She was such a joy and inspiration to me. For the last two years I've struggled to find that fire to play music and she periodically reminds me I need to get back to it... in not subtle ways.

My deepest sympathies to family and friends. Chelsea was truly a shining light and I'll miss her terribly.

“ I have never met Chelsea. When I first grew to know her, it was as the gutsy and strong headed player Jadex, on World of Warcraft. I was in their guild. We had headphones when we raided and I can still hear her joking and her voice carrying on some nonsense in the game. Then I discovered her Facebook page and began to follow she and Jeff's life as husband and wife. What a beautiful person she was and such eyes!! My heart is broken that you did not win this battle, if you'd have had your way, you would have kicked some booty lady. My sincere prayers to Jeff and the children and may God hold and comfort them as they find their way now in life!!

“ Chelsea was so brave and strong! She was complaining about her thinning hair one day on Facebook! I wrote back and said: If it were me I would just shave it and be done with it!! Throw on a scarf and that pretty face will take you anywhere!!!! Next picture she posted she had done exactly that! Now that's a brave pretty girl!! I so enjoyed her postings as I followed her journey into her illness! She allowed each of us to be apart of it
